

LUXURY GIFTS WITH A CLEAN CONSCIENCE!

"Working with Nature" has launched a new range of exciting new gifts beautifully packaged in gorgeous sustainable jute bags.

All of their beneficial skin pampering goodies are carefully made in a purpose built farmhouse workshop by Allyson Proudfoot who has been a professional soapmaker with the Bellingham Soap Company for eleven years.

"Not only are they made from the best ingredients to be found...but you can be confident that they are ethical from pot to package"

Allyson is totally dedicated to her art and accepts no compromise when it comes to her products all of which she designs and makes herself.

The products are all free from harmful chemicals such as Parabens, SLS, and artificial colours and are only ever tested on willing friends!
